Firstly congratulations on your upcoming wedding!. Along with you I am excited to design, write and perform your ceremony.I won't deny I am in this industry simply - because I thrive on watching love become complete.

I have a great sense of humour and my style is relaxed to ensure you get what you want. I am here to complete the picture you have in your minds of a ceremony that suits you both. It's all about you.

My assurance to you is that you are totally satisfied with the words, music, readings and timing you have chosen for your special day.

I look forward to meeting you.
